1914 Rolland was a French novelist, dramatist, essayist, mystic, pacifist who was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1915. Jean Christophe is the author's best known work. The ten-volume novel was an epic story of a German musical genius. This book contains the final three volumes: Love and Friendship, The Burning Bush, and The New Dawn.

Using his unique ability to analyze character so admirably, Ludwig has presented a biography of Napoleon I that concentrates less on the battles and more on the man, his inner history, intellect, self-confidence, energy, imaginative power, clarity of thought, and natural dignity. The time line of this book is from Napoleon's birth in 1769 and to his death in 1821. Along his life's journey, he became a uniquely talented man, a great soldier, and a great leader. It covers his heights of power and success, men and country followed him unconditionally, great kingdoms fell before him, and he became emperor. It also includes his extraordinary failings: the damaging French invasion of Russia, abdication, exile, defeat at the battle of Waterloo, island confinement, and his ultimate death.
